

Due to liability reasons, no videotaping until after the induction. We have with us tonight one of the youngest entertainers in the business. Starting off performing magic as a kid, Reed Tate taught himself hypnosis at the age of 16 after he saw his first hypnosis show. Now 24, he has since gone through a number of trainings, certifications, and a mentorship to sharpen and build the hypnotic knowledge he possesses today. He spent his time in the spotlight with musical and performing groups in his high school and college years. Now he spends his time with street hypnosis, educational demonstrations, and countless hypnosis shows from coast to coast. Please welcome the one, the only. The Reed Tate!
